I like the Princeton Club, but I'm disappointed that they are pushing The Body Vi, which is a tiered marketing product made with soy. I don't think a business should push products like this onto their customers! Jane J. Oct 13. I've been going to Princeton Club for a few months now. I go right after work, about 5:30-6 and stay until 6:30-7 for the week and there are always a lot of cars open. Their classes are all included in the monthly price with lots of classes available throughout the day. They will expand your membership if you are affected and cannot work or if you have a child. I think it was a matter of people not checking their policies before signing a long-term agreement. As a hand note, you don't have to sign up for a two year contract. As for the front desk staff, I never went in there without hi. They were very helpful and friendly. However, if they don't say hello or smile at me, I'm not going to take it personally. I'm there to work, so as not to exchange pleasantries. The director of the institution introduced herself to me and told me that if I have any questions or concerns to feel free and visit her .... And no, I don't look like someone special. She didn't have the time to answer some of my questions and again offered her help. One thing I'm less than happy about is the swimming area. I feel that this part of the club can work better. My son takes swimming lessons and on days he has no lessons that he likes to practice in the lap pool. If I'm not there, they'll kick him out if an adult wants to use it. It also seems that the slide never opens when the clock indicates what it should be. However, he takes swimming lessons there and he has progressed fast and loves it. I've been going to Princeton Club for four ★★ months. I've been going to the Princeton Club for a few months now and I'm not quite sure why people have such a low opinion of them. I go right after work, about 5:30-6 and stay until 6:30-7 for the week, and there are always a lot of Gracie22 in Citysearch on October 10. I was a member when it was a movement. At least then they acted as if they cared. The ladies at the front desk selectively say hello and goodbye to the members. They will literally look at you and then look away. One of the ladies made a sarcastic comment to me when I signed up that I had only gone to the club once this month, I then awkwardly explained that I was very busy at work. It's just rude. It's pretty expensive members who don't have children should be charged less!!! Classes seem good on a monthly schedule, however they are packed, and instructors don't make them greet the first few times you visit. Coaches only communicate with people who pay for training sessions. I am a teacher and in the summer I can walk on a regular basis. I've seen the same few coaches almost daily, never once did any of them ask me how things are. In general, it is not worth the price!!! William C. Jan 13. Reading some reviews makes me realize that some people are simply ignorant. The club is great, the classes are great (tennis, swimming, etc.), the kids don't run amuck, and despite the poster being blunt/wrong, they are not allowed in the Jacuzzi or resistance pool to splash people who pay.... blah blah blah blah. I pay a family member, but I never take my children except for lessons. I pay more for family membership. I was also bright enough to ask when I bought a two year old package (how do you get significant savings) if something happens, I can get a refund. I was told no. So if you get referred to or injured or lazy, guess what, you won't get your $ back! I think they developed this policy because of people abusing the system, trying to get their $ back when they just decided they didn't want to go to the gym anymore. It ruins it for good honest people, but that's what it is, they don't hide it and if you're stuck paying a few extra months, too bad. For classes and lessons, they were very flexible with time, makeup, etc. amenities at the highest level and the staff pleasant. I didn't have any problems with overcrowding and the leagues we've done in the past have been fun and well run. As for the baby having an obvious tapeworm on his chest as one lady states... it's idiotic. Tapeworms in her colon, so if she didn't look in the toilet?? Maybe in her defense, she meant ringworm ... but as a doctor (MD) I will tell you that someone that does not know the difference between rectal parasites and a common fungal skin infection should not be diagnosed by anyone ... it could easily be eczema, psoriasis, viral xantham, pity, clam, etc. all this if you share your towel, not what you are going to get by swimming next to them. so, on the whole, you get what you pay for. The club is a bit pricey but well worth it. if you hate children, plan to rescue from your membership, or have a problem with charges with or without children, repealing policies etc.... Go somewhere else, please! I'll stick to the motion turned Princeton Club! 5 ★★★★★ Reading some reviews makes me realize some people are just ignorant. It's been said here many times, but I'll say it again. Great equipment, terrible management. I have visited the Princeton Club three times a week for almost 4 years, always paying all year in advance. I never liked the coaches there and the classes weren't complicated. Finally, I got transferred as part of a new job and needed to cancel the last three months of my membership, and Mike Kuglich informed me that there was no way to get my money back. In short, they keep the remaining three months of fees. I DON'T recommend Princeton Club D. Jan 13. We went to find out about membership at the New Berlin Princeton Club, but when the girl told us that the membership had been for 24 months and could not be cancelled, I hesitated on the decision to join. As soon as she realized that she was starting to be mean and overbearing, and tried to imply that she had given us a tour just because we said we wanted to join. She was mean, and she didn't offer us the court membership to which we were entitled. After reading all the reviews, I'm glad we didn't check in and went out. 1 ★ We went to learn about membership of the New Berlin Princeton Club, but when the girl told us that the membership had been for 24 months and could not be cancelled, I hesitated on the decision to join. I went through 2 memberships with them. for the second year I had a family tragedy that did not allow me to come. They don't care that you're not there as long as they have their money. After membership they still send me updates. I think they don't know who is a member or not. As one person I have to have a reduced rate. I don't have kids who take on resources. Why should I pay for other families with the same rate. They allow children to use the resistance pool without hesitation, even when a fully paid adult tries to work there. Children splash, kick, and no one says anything. I even pointed to a child with a visible tapeworm on his stomach, and the guide did nothing to restrict it from using pools. However, the Water Department is not very friendly to the children who use pool lap as they go certain unwritten rules, like when adults want to use pool knees, knees. You need to leave in general, the objects are clean. Price discrepancies, however. The one in New Berlin (44 euros per month) is more expensive than in Madison ($36 per month).... 1 ★★★★★ Tennis Chair is very good and I highly recommend it. October 26. I have been a member for just over a year and have been constantly going for the last 10 months. The front desk always tries to greet you and answer any questions from their way. The instructors are amazing and I love the variety of classes. My 2 kids go to a children's club and I am always impressed with how professional and enthusiastic the staff are - especially after working with so many kids all day! The facility is excellent, offering lots of cardio machines and strengthening equipment. My husband and I got hooked on the impact class and lost the zgt;25 each! Unfortunately, the instructor is no more, and there are 2 fewer classes offered. My only complaint is that they will add more exposure classes! Was this review helpful to you? Jackie K. Oct 13. I can't even tell you all the problems I've had with the management at this club. The club is a good facility if all you have to do is go use it. But make sure you don't need to put your membership on hold because of any tragedies or health problems because they just don't care! All they want is to get their money out of you and they will definitely use high pressure sales tactics to do it! Buyer beware here!!!! 2 ★ I can't even tell you all the problems I've had with management at this club. The club is a good facility if all you have to do is go use it. I joined this club a little over a year ago and although I loved the facility itself, the management staff are not helpful or tactful. About a month after I joined the club, my father had a serious stroke and I became his chief caregiver leaving me without the extra time that so ever used the club. When contacting the club to see if I could put my membership on hold and restart it when my father is better, I was told very badly, it is not our policy to put people on hold without notifying the doctors. Because it was my father who had a medical condition, not me it was impossible to do it. My year is now and because of this situation, I was only able to visit the 10x's club. Given the amount of money I paid and the amount I was able to use this club, I am now basically paid $85 for a workout session.... Way to a lot for me and there are ways for many clubs that are willing to help in situations like this! If you want to work with people caring rather than those who want to take your money and run, check out Bally, Y or even Curves! I love it! It is in an ideal location for most people living in New Berlin, even with running distance! If you want to get in extra work on your way there! I love all the classes and that you don't have to pay extra for them, as in most other gyms! The hit class is amazing, the instructor makes it fun and the time just flies by! I wouldn't go anywhere else! Was this review helpful to you? Leslie B. June 20. I would never recommend this club to anyone, a good facility yes, but if you don't look rich, do the staff, recognize that you are coming in or away... way overpriced and people who don't have children should get a better bet so they contribute to free childcare that they can't use! All they care about is your money, not your well-being, or how you do... if they did, they would respond to my attempts to contact them with questions I had a dick! Some of the classes get way repackaged and they do nothing about it. In addition, if the class is overcrowded, then the class should be limited to adults 18 years and older, and members are only NOT instructors or trainers ... In my opinion, the only staff that should be taken a class if it looks in full is one teaching it! Princeton Club sucks! Was this review helpful to you? RACHEL B. Aug 24. Great instructors class! Many classes to choose from. Tons of treadmills, ellipticals, bicycles. There's always open equipment to use. The club is clean, clean, clean. With such high ceilings it feels very open and not crowded. Was this review helpful to you? Garrett. Aug 10. It is one of the best fitness clubs in the area. This facility is much more than a gym. Tennis indoors and outdoors is exceptional. There may be more racket sports, but an indoor golf facility is nice to have. The only thing I was somewhat disappointed with was the quality of the covered walkway. Being someone that works long hours 24x7 hours I would consider this facility as exceptional for families and good for singles just looking for a gym. Was this review helpful to you? Jeff S. Jul 08. I was once a member of the Movement Fitness and Racket Club and Princeton Club when it was bought. Although the club itself is good, the management is terrible. If you check the BBB for complaints, you will see that the Princeton Club has a history of questionable sales practice. I left the club when my contract expired and don't miss it a bit. The stakes are competitive with other clubs in the area. (Especially now that they offer FREE childcare while you work!) I especially love the swimsuit spinner and the fact that they have towels to use by the member. When you are on the move, it is good not to have all that wet stuff while sitting in the car all day after a workout or swim class. 5 ★★★★★ This is the cleanest health club I've ever been to. My husband has been a member of the Princeton Club (formerly the Fitness Movement and Racquet Club) for several years. He plays tennis there all year round and loves it. He is the only member in our family however they have family days on weekends when the kids and I can use the facilities well at no extra cost. My kids love the pool - it's like a small water park with slides, water spray and sprinklers. The water is always warm, and in the main pool the water starts to zero depth and goes up to about 3 feet - perfect for younger children who learn to swim. They also have a pool on their knees, a pool that has resistance (can also be used mini lazy river) and a spa bath that can also accommodate people in wheelchairs. Of course, the club has all the latest hardware development and more. Definitely worth a look at! 4 ★★★★★ My husband was a member of the The club (formerly Motion Fitness and Racquet Club) for several years. He plays tennis there all year round and loves it. The people here are very nice and helpful. Joining a fee can be a lot, but if you catch them having one of their deals it's a huge price. The place has a lot of space and so much light come in, you don't feel so crowded together when your job is. The pool is really nice, great for kids. Nursery is great if you have kids and they even have kids gym. It's a great place for a family to join, but it's also a great place for others to join too.
